Office of Residence Life/Hall Policies

Effective Date: August 2, 2015

Last Revised: July 1, 2019

Nichols College Residence Life Mission:

We strive to create a vibrant, inclusive residential community experience that fosters intrinsic leadership, personal growth, and appreciation and respect for all.

To support its mission, Residence Life

- Creates a safe and welcoming environment
- Offers opportunities and resources for student success
- Provides programming and events to support the overall well-being and holistic development of our students
- Cultivates and maintains a caring, competent, diverse and well trained staff

Students residing in the Nichols College residence halls are held by the policies and procedures of the Student Code of Conduct as well as the terms and conditions of the Housing License Agreement. Possible Student Code of Conduct Violations are listed at the end of each section in this policy. These violation lists are not exhaustive and the Offices of Community Standards and Residence Life reserve the right to apply violations not listed.

Access to the Residence Halls

For the safety and security of all individuals living in the residence halls, all halls are locked 24 hours a day by a computer-controlled card-entry system. Access is granted by a personal identification card that is programmed to only open the building the student is assigned to. All resident students have access to the lobbies of the Copper Beeches only in order to access vending machines and Becker Market.

The loss or theft of a Nichols College Student ID is considered a security risk, as anyone who finds it is then able to access buildings. Lost ID cards must be reported to the Residence Life Staff or Public Safety immediately. For the safety of all campus community members, a lost ID will always result in a new ID print. Lost or stolen IDs will be replaced for a $25.00 charge billed directly to the Student's Account. Students can obtain replacement IDs by visiting the Student Life Suite in the Fels Student Center, on the third floor. If the ID is reported lost/stolen after the Office of Residence Life hours (Monday-Friday 8:30am-4:30pm), then a temporary ID will be given to the student from the Office of Public Safety.

Failure to report a lost/stolen ID will result in a referral to the Office of Community Standards for the following including, but not limited to:

9.i. Failure to report a lost/stolen key or identification card

Any student who provides another individual with their identification card will be referred to the Office of Community Standards for: 9.h. Providing a Nichols College issued key and/or identification card to another individual

Students found to be in possession of a Nichols College ID of another individual will be referred for violating the Student Code of Conduct, specifically:

14.h. Possession and/or use of false identification

Individuals who prop doors to the residence hall open jeopardize security. An alarm will sound at the door and at Public Safety if one of the outside doors is kept open for longer than is reasonable for entry.

16.j. Propping a door to a residence hall

ADA/Special Housing Accommodations

In compliance with Section 504 of the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1971 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Nichols students who are requesting accommodations of any kind must first be registered with the Director of Health Services or the Director of Advising Services. All information received regarding requests for an accommodation is confidential. First year students are requested to have all of the information completed and submitted the Health Services or the Advising Office by the determined deadline for that academic year. Currently enrolled students seeking housing for the next academic year must fulfill all of these requirements and submit all paperwork by the determined deadline for that academic year. Incoming first year/transfer residents must fulfill all of the requirement and submit all paperwork by the determined deadline for that academic year. Every effort will be made to accommodate late applicants. Accommodations are provided for the student with the disability, not for a group including the student with a disability. The determination that the request for accommodations qualifies will be made by the Office of Residence Life in conjunction with the Director of Advising and the Director of Health Services. A Request for Accommodations Form must be obtained by emailing Residence Life at reslife@nichols.edu. It must be completed in full and the supporting documentation must be in writing from an appropriate provider (physician, psychologist, psychiatrist, etc.) who is not a relative. All documentation must clearly support the need for the requested accommodation(s). Responses, in written form will be sent once a decision has been made.

Alcohol within the Residence Halls

Residents living within the residence halls must abide by the Nichols College Alcohol Policy. Alcohol is allowed only in rooms if the entire room/suite/apartment of assigned residents and guests are of legal drinking age (21 years of age or older). The possession of hard liquor is prohibited regardless of age. Consumption of any alcoholic beverage or open container of alcohol, in common areas by any student or guest is prohibited. Please refer to the Nichols College Alcohol Policy for further explanation and sanctions.

The storing of empty alcohol containers is not permitted and must be properly disposed of immediately. 16.p. Storing empty alcohol containers

The use of alcohol paraphernalia, boxes, parts of boxes, or containers as decorations is not permitted regardless of age: 16.g. Monuments to alcohol

Animals/Pets

Fish are the only pets allowed in student rooms. There is a 10-gallon limitation on tank size. All other animals are not allowed in residence halls. Repeat violations could result in removal from housing. 16.a. Animals/pets in residence halls

Cleaning Services

Eagle Cleaning is responsible for the normal cleaning and upkeep of common areas of the residence halls. Any excessive mess is the responsibility of the involved parties. In the event that Eagle Cleaning is called to clean an excessive mess, a charge to the residents of the building will be assessed.

Damage

Damage occurring in a residence hall will be repaired by Facilities Management. In the event that the student who is responsible for the damage cannot be identified, the cost of repair will be assessed to the building, floor or group of residents (at the discretion of Residence Life) and divided by the number of residents. The destruction of property is not tolerated. Individuals will be referred to the Office of Community Standards and face the following possible charges including, but not limited to:

- 4.a. Causing water or fire damage to college property
- 4.b. Causing physical damage to the buildings or furnishings of the College
- 4.c. Misuse, destruction, or defacement of Nichols property
- 4.d. Misuse, destruction, defacement of library material or other academic material
- 4.e. Misuse, destruction, or defacement of another's property
- 4.f. Littering
- 4.g. Tampering with and/or removing windows or screens

Damage to resident room/suite/ apartment

Damage to College owned property and/or furniture is not permitted. If damage to College owned property and/or furniture is found the student(s) will be charged for the repair and/or replacement of the item. In addition, the student(s) may be relocated while repairs are addressed by Facilities Management. Continual damage will result in a referral for violating the Student Code of Conduct and could result in sanctions ranging from permanent Housing Relocation to Removal from Housing.

Damage to personal property

The College will make every reasonable effort to protect the personal property of residents, but will not be liable for articles lost, stolen, or damaged by fire, water, heat, and/or other natural disasters. (STUDENTS SHOULD RECORD THE MAKE, MODEL AND SERIAL NUMBERS OF IMPORTANT ITEMS, CONSIDER THE PURCHASE OF INSURANCE TO COVER LOSS OF OR DAMAGE TO PERSONAL PROPERTY, OR THE EXTENSION OF PARENTS' INSURANCE FOR THIS PURPOSE.) Nichols College will not be responsible for damages due to power surges caused by individual room overloads or otherwise. Students must provide their own U.L. approved fuse-type multi-plug surge protector.

Disruptive behavior

Disruptive behavior is defined as any action that causes substantial interference or disruption of the College community or operations. The following are not permitted in the residence halls and could result in a referral to the Office of Community Standards.

Guests

Nichols College affords its resident students the opportunity to have guests on campus and the privilege to allow guests in a room/suite/apartment as long as the roommate's right to access, privacy and freedom to study and sleep free from disturbance are respected. A guest is defined as an individual who is not currently enrolled as a Nichols College Student. All guests must be registered utilizing the online registration form found at:

https://publicdocs.maxient.com/reportingform.php?NicholsCollege&layout\_id=8

Each Student Host is responsible for the conduct of their guest, and will be subject to charges from the Student Code of Conduct. Guests are expected to comply with all Nichols College policies. Failure to obtain a Guest Pass will result in removal from campus for the Visiting Guest and a violation of the Student Code of Conduct for the Student Host. Guests are not permitted to stay more than 2 consecutive nights at Nichols College within a 7 day period, and no more than 5 nights per calendar month. Refer to the Nichols College Guest Policy for the full terms of the policy. Individuals found to be in violation of the Guest Policy will be referred to the Office of Community Standards for: 10.a. Violating any terms of the Nichols College Guest Policy

Hall Sports

Due to possible injury to a bystander or damage to the facilities hall sports of any kind are not permitted. This includes the use of sports equipment or engaging in contact activities. The use of rollerblades, skateboards, bikes, or scooters is prohibited within the residence halls. Students engaging in this behavior are subject to referral.

16.e. Hall Sports and/or 18. Skateboarding and Bicycling

Health and Safety Inspections

Residents are responsible for the cleanliness of their respective rooms/suites/apartments. Safety is of the utmost importance to the Office of Residence Life and each resident has a responsibility to assist in the safety of their assigned space. Health and Safety Inspections will be completed every 4-5 weeks by the Office of Residence Life staff to ensure that living conditions meet community standards. Students are not required to be present for the Health and Safety Inspections. Students will be given 48 hours notice of the date and timeframe of the inspections.

Upon completion of the inspection, the room/suite/apartment will receive a receipt of the findings of the inspections. If a room/suite/apartment receives a notice that they FAILED the inspection, the Office of Residence Life staff will give the student(s) 24 hours to rectify the situation and will return to re-inspect.

If upon re-inspection the issue is not resolved the student(s) will be charged $50 and be referred to the Office of Community Standards for the following possible violations, including but not limited to:

16.r Violation of Nichols College health/safety regulations

8.a Failure to comply with or attempts to circumvent a sanction(s) imposed by a College Official

8.b Failure to respond to the directive of a College Official or designated agent or interference with said directive

16.t. Failure to comply with a Health and Safety Directive

In the event that during inspection, a room is found to be in violation of the Student Code of Conduct or the Housing License Agreement, the residents of the room will be referred to the Office of Community Standards for violating the Student Code of Conduct.

If damage to College owned property and/or furniture is found during a Health and Safety Inspection, the student(s) will be charged for the repair and/or replacement of the item. In addition, the student(s) may be relocated while repairs are addressed by Facilities Management. Continual failure of Health and Safety Inspections will result in a referral for violating the Student Code of Conduct habitually and could result in sanctions ranging from permanent Housing Relocation to Removal from Housing.

Holiday Decorations

As a matter of safety no live greenery or wreaths are permitted anywhere in the residence halls. Under no circumstance should decorations be attached or suspended from fire safety devices or equipment, or from the ceiling. Only UL listed string lights are permitted. No artificial tree or greenery greater than 3ft. is permitted in the residence halls.

Keys

Resident students are issued keys based upon their housing assignment. Under no circumstance should a resident give their issued key to another individual. Any student who provides another individual with their room key/s will be referred to the Office of Community Standards for: g.h. Providing a Nichols College issued key and/or identification card to another individual

The loss or theft of a College-issued key is considered a security risk. Therefore, lost keys must be reported to Public Safety or Residence Life Staff immediately. For the safety of all campus community members, a lost key will always result in a lock change. The student whose key has been lost/stolen will be responsible for any charges accrued during core changes. Failure to report a lost/stolen key will result in a referral to the Office of Community Standards for the following including, but not limited to:

g.i. Failure to report a lost/stolen key or identification card

Billing Charges

The residential student initial cost for lock changes is as follows:

Shamie/Olsen/South/North/Center/Budleigh/Winston- $43.00

Remillard/Kuppenheimer- $100.00

Copper Beech 4 Person Apartment- $104.00

Copper Beech 6 Person Apartment- $106.00

\*Note additional charges may occur based on circumstance, ie. time of day, condition of lock, etc. ***

Immediately after the lock change has been completed a member of the Residence Life Staff will contact the student and roommates to pick up their new key, charges will be placed on a student's account on a monthly basis. The resident of the room/suite/apartment who lost the key will be billed and is responsible for all related charges.

Lofts

The use of lofted beds constructed by residents is not permitted. Cinderblocks are prohibited. Only College-issued lofts are allowed.

Lock-outs

Students must keep their doors locked at all times. Students who are locked out of their room should contact their Resident Assistant, Public Safety or a member of the Professional Staff Area Coordinator-AC and request assistance. During the hours when Resident Assistants are on duty, (Sunday –Thursday 9pm-12am, Friday-Saturday 9pm-1am) Public Safety will attempt to contact a Resident Assistant (RA) and request assistance for the student. The RA will verify the identity of the requesting student and unlock the student's assigned room. During hours when Residence Life is not on duty or unreachable, Public Safety will provide access. In all cases Public Safety and Residence Life Staff will record the student's name, ID, key code, date and time of the request so an accurate count can be maintained.

The lock out charges will be applied to the student's billing account at the end of each month. See below for the billing structure for Lock-out Charges per academic year:

- 1st Lock Out- No Charge; student must produce key to Residence Life or Public Safety Staff
- 2nd Lock Out- No Charge; student must produce key to Residence Life or Public Safety Staff
- 3rd Lock Out- $25 Charge; student must produce key to Residence Life or Public Safety Staff

- 5th Lock Out- $75 Charge; student must produce key to Residence Life or Public Safety Staff, student will face a Student Code of Conduct Violation for excessive lockouts.

After the 5th Lock out for the academic year, the charge will continue to rise by $25. Please note once the first two “free/no charge” lockouts are used in an academic year, these will NOT be repeated. For example, the 6th lockout will be a fee of $100 as well as possible Conduct Code Charges. Excessive Lockouts (defined as 5 lockouts or more) will result in violation of the Student Code of Conduct. 16.d. Excessive Lockouts

Excessive lockouts is defined as 5 lockouts or more within an academic year. Students found responsible for excessive lockouts are subject to sanctions ranging from Written Warning to Removal from Housing Held in Abeyance.

Missing Persons

Per the Missing Person Policy of the Higher Education Act all students are required to fill out an up-to-date missing person contact of their choosing with the Office of Student Life. Students must provide this information via the online check-in process available on the Nichols College Housing Portal. The College will use this information in cases where a person is reported missing. Once a person is reported missing, their missing person contact will be notified within the first twenty-four (24) hours. All Missing Person Reports that are made to the Department of Public Safety will be investigated in conjunction with the local Police Department. See Missing Person Protocol Policy for more information.

Noise/Quiet Hours

Residence halls should be reasonably quiet at all times and Courtesy Hours are in effect twenty-four (24) hours a day. Quiet hours are in effect Sunday-Thursday 11pm-9am and Friday and Saturday 1am-10am. The Office of Residence Life reserves the right to enforce or change quiet hours. Students are encouraged to address any noise that may be disruptive. Air horns/megaphones are not allowed. Students unable to abide by the Quiet Hours Policy will be referred for 16.h. Noise/Quiet Hours Violation

Occupancy/Disruptive Gatherings

Residents are welcome to host guests into their rooms in adherence with the Nichols College Guest Policy. However, for safety concerns, the Office of Residence Life limits the number of individuals allowed in a room/suite/apartment. The max number of occupants allowed is double the occupancy of the room plus one. For example, a double room is allowed to have three guests. Additional occupants is viewed as disruptive and the residents of the room will be referred to the Office of Community Standards for the following, including, but not limited to: 6.e. Disruptive gatherings/unauthorized party and 6.d. Exceeding occupancy levels

Openings/Closings

Right of Privacy

Students are guaranteed the reasonable privacy of their room and belongings. However, under specific guidelines rooms may be entered and inspected by Nichols College officials. These guidelines include, but are not limited to, cases of emergency, need for repairs, health and safety inspections, and when reasonable suspicion exists to indicate that a violation of College policies, Federal, State or local laws may be taking place in the room.

Roofs

No student is permitted on the roofs, balconies, ledges or overhangs of the residence halls at any time. Students who do not abide by this will be referred to the Office of Community

Standards. Residents of the room, through which access is gained, may be held liable. For the following including but not limited to: g.g. Getting on roofs

Room Alterations

Occupants are not allowed to paint, alter, or remodel any furnishings or student room/public area in the residence hall. The use of nails and screws is strictly prohibited. Damage charges will be assessed to the residents concerned. The Office of Residence Life reserves the right to relocate residents for the duration of the repair to the room and to refer for Student Conduct violations.

Room Furnishings

Each resident student is furnished with a bed, desk, wardrobe, wastebasket and recycling bin. All furniture must remain in the original student's room. The College will not remove any furniture from a student's room. Students are responsible for all furniture issued to them at the beginning of the Fall/Spring semester. Students must not bring any furniture off campus that is the property of Nichols College. College furnishings may not be removed from students' rooms nor moved from one hall to another. No furniture/items from lounges may be moved to students' rooms. Penalties for moving such furnishings may include fines and/or student conduct proceedings. Upon moving in, each student is required to sign a room inventory form indicating receipt of the room key and conditions of room and furnishings. Students terminating residency must clear their departure with Residence Life / Area Coordinator before checking out. Upon checkout, the occupant(s) of the room will be charged if inspection by College staff reveals damage or uncleanliness beyond normal wear to the room and/or its furnishings. At any time, if individual responsibility for damage, loss, or defacement cannot be determined, charges may be assessed equally to floor residents for damage to their floor facilities or to all hall residents for damage to hall facilities.

Personal property left behind by residents following checkout and contract termination is considered abandoned. The resident shall be charged for any costs incurred by moving or removing property from their room, floor, hall or college property/parking lots.

1. Vandalism /Property Damage: Theft of, damage to, misuse of, or unauthorized possession of property of the College, other public property, or personal property of another could result in dismissal from the residence halls. All damages, vandalism either purposefully or through negligence, will be charged to the student(s) involved.
2. Repairs: RESIDENTS ARE NOT PERMITTED TO MAKE THEIR OWN REPAIRS OR TO INSTALL FIXTURES, WHICH INCLUDES MOUNTED WALL BRACKETS FOR TELEVISIONS.

Any large/heavy/difficult to move items remaining in the room after student check-out that were not originally supplied by the College will be removed and the student(s) will be charged a minimum of $100.00. Other items left behind will constitute as excessive trash, be disposed of, and the student(s) charged $100.00. The Office of Residence Life reserves the right to donate or dispose of personal items left behind.

Room Changes

A student wishing to change rooms should first discuss the matter with the Resident Assistant or Area Coordinator. Room change requests are only approved by the Director of Residence Life or their designee. Students who move without authorization or move prior to obtaining permission will be referred to the Office of Community Standards and will result in sanctions.

16.q. Unauthorized room change

Room Vacancies

The office of Residence Life reserves the right to:

- a. Fill any vacancy in a resident room
- b. Consolidate students who are without roommates
- c. Refer students to the Office of Community Standards for failure to comply with a request to prepare for a roommate or for engaging in conduct that dissuades or intimidates other students from moving into a room
