American History
A Guide to Selected Resources

See Also 'Women In American Society'

Reference & Fact Finding
Books & eBooks
Journals, Magazines, & Newspapers
Great Websites!

Reference & Fact Finding

Bibliographies, Guides and Handbooks || Encyclopedias
Biography/Genealogy || Maps/Historical Atlases || Primary Sources

Bibliographies and General Finding Aids

GENERAL || REGIONAL || SUBJECT SPECIFIC

GENERAL

Sections 42-44 treat American history. Each chapter includes a brief introductory essay summarizing the history and development of that area of historical inquiry. Author and subject indexes and a list of journals.

Old but still very useful, this selective guide lists books and articles published prior to 1970. Volume I has a topical arrangement and Volume II is chronological. There is also a subject index.

Catalog of United States Government Publications (GCP) [http://catalog.gpo.gov]
Along with a vast amount of current data and analysis, many excellent historical treatises on a wide variety of subjects are available. MOCAT is an online catalog of government publications released since January 1994. Materials can be obtained via interlibrary loan or direct borrowing.

Chapters cover population; living arrangements; education; health; work; income, poverty, and wealth; housing; crimes and criminal justice; leisure, volunteerism, and religion; voting; the environment; and government.

REGIONAL

22 thematic sections, ranging from agriculture to tourism, each with an introduction by a leading specialist in the field; includes 1,300 alphabetically arranged entries examining significant people, places, events, ideas, and artifacts.

Massachusetts: A Bibliography of Its History [F 64 .C73]
Enteries for articles in "national and regional periodicals, foreign language publications, edited series of government publications, collected biography, plus gazetteers, diaries, and travel accounts." Arranged by town and county; there are also subject and name indexes for each.
A Guide to the History of Massachusetts [F 64 .G84 1988]
Essays on Massachusetts history and special topics, including urban Massachusetts, women in Massachusetts, and oral history. Also a section describing major state archives and repositories of historical material.

SUBJECT SPECIFIC

Abstracts of articles published between 1963 and 1976 dealing with women in the United States or Canada.

Encyclopedias

Covers political, economic, and cultural aspects of American history. Short bibliographies for each entry.

The first eight sections are chronological, “surveying major periods of American history from the arrival of Europeans to the beginning of the twenty-first century. Section 9 treats various groups defined by gender, race, religion, ethnicity, or sexual preference. Section 10 looks at specific cities and regions, sections 12 through 14 examine political, economic, and social orders, section 15 focuses on knowledge management, section 16 looks at the media, and the last section surveys major schools of thought relative to cultural and intellectual history.

Articles on the history of the American economy.

Encyclopedia of American Foreign Policy [JX 1407 .E53]
Some ninety-five essays exploring “concepts, themes, large ideas, theories, and distinctive policies in the history of American foreign policy are featured. Brief bibliographies, plus a biographical dictionary are included. There is an extensive name and subject index.

Encyclopedia of American Social History [HN 57 .E58 1993]
Chapters on the social history of various periods, followed by numerous articles on specific topics including: regional and ethnic subcultures, everyday life and work, popular culture and recreation, and social protest and problems. Bibliographies for each entry.

Encyclopedia of the Korean War: A Political, Social, and Military History [DS 918 .E 53 2000]

Encyclopedia of the North American Colonies [E 188 .E53 1993]
Covers not only British colonies but those controlled by other nations, particularly France, the Netherlands, and Spain. Major topics include settlements, government, economies, labor systems, race, war/ diplomacy, social customs, technology, the arts, education, religion, and independence.

Includes essays on "the land and the peoples of Vietnam, the French colonial era, the background of American military intervention, the military history of the war, its impact on both the Vietnamese and American peoples, the peacemaking efforts, the role of American media, the cultural impact of the war in the United States, and a treatment of the war's ongoing effects in the U.S." and shorter topical articles dealing with the people and events of the war.

Articles, with bibliographies, on concepts, people, events, and organizations relating to women's history. A subject index is provided.

Historical narratives, biographical sketches, and statistical tables.
Biography and Genealogy

Biography in Context
Full-text database of biographical information on more than 200,000 people from throughout history, around the world, and across all disciplines and subject areas. Bibliographies available for many entries. Now includes Complete Marquis Who's Who

Cyndi’s List of Genealogical Sites on the Web
Developed and maintained by Cyndi Howells, author of “Netting Your Ancestors: Genealogical Research on the Internet,” this is a very impressive, comprehensive collection of some 26,000 links in over 70 alphabetically-arranged categories.

FamilySearch
Considered to be the largest genealogical database in the world.

Dictionary of American Biography [REF E 176 .D56]
Biographies, with bibliographies, for individuals who died prior to 1970.

Liberty’s Women [REF HQ 1412 .L52]
Biographies of 1035 American women. Includes an index by occupation or career.

Biography.com
More than 25,000 biographies with links.

Maps and Historical Atlases

Perry-Castaneda Library Map Collection
Links to all kinds of maps covering every area of the world. See especially the link to “Historical Maps” (Historical Maps of United States are grouped chronologically.) See also “Other Historical Maps Web Sites” (links grouped by geographical area).

[Atlapedia Online](http://www.atlapedia.com/]
Full color physical and political maps as well as key facts and statistics on countries of the world. The Countries "A to Z" section provides facts, figures and statistical data on geography, climate, people, religion, language, history, economy and more for individual countries. The "World Maps" section provides full color maps for regions of the world.

Primary Sources

A NOTE ABOUT PRIMARY AND SECONDARY SOURCES: The Historian’s Handbook defines a primary source as one that "gives the words of the witnesses or the first recorders of an event," as compared to secondary sources, which are descriptions of events based on primary sources (175). Published material is most often considered primary if it is true to the original (for example, a collection of letters), or if the publication occurs almost concurrently with the reported event (for example, a newspaper account).

[AMDOCS: Documents for the Study of American History](http://www.vlib.us/amdocs/]
Full-text of important documents in American history.

[American Memory](http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/browse/updatedList.html/]
Library of Congress
Primary materials relating to US history and culture. Included are texts, photos, motion pictures and audio materials. You can search by keyword, name, and format. See also http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/index.html for a few other presentations.

[The Making of America](https://quod.lib.umich.edu/m/moagrp/]
Full text of many of primary sources in American social history from the antebellum period through Reconstruction. Major subject areas include education, psychology, American history, sociology, religion, and science and technology.

[National Archives and Records Administration](https://www.archives.gov/]
Links to presidential libraries and other federal records centers are provided here.
Books and Articles

WorldCat Discovery is a single search box on the Library’s homepage that searches:

- All library-owned print books, including textbooks and reserves
- Millions of ebooks through eBook Central, Google Books, and the Hathi Trust Digital Library
- Journal articles, conference papers and newspaper articles from most of the Library's databases
  - Some databases are better suited to being searched directly (see the next section)
- And books and articles outside of our library by selecting Libraries Worldwide
  - Request items from other libraries using the “Request Items” button

Simply enter your terms into the single search box on the Library home page, and click Search. Use the resulting options (print book or article; date range; author, etc.) on the left of the results page to refine your search.

ONE SEARCH TO FIND THEM ALL

Browse the Call Numbers of print books (find and look around the below locations in the book shelves):

- E General History of U.S.
- F 1-975 Local History, U.S.
- PS American Literature
- M - N Music and Art
- HN - HT Social History, Social Groups, Sociology
- JK Political Science - United States

Specific Subject Heading Searching: For example: Enter "su:(Temperance Societies)" in WorldCat Discovery

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>United States History Civil War 1861 to 1865</th>
<th>American Loyalists</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>United States History 20th Century</td>
<td>Jefferson, Thomas Bibliography</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Depression 1929 United States</td>
<td>Vietnamese Conflict Protest Movement United States</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>United State Social Condition 1960 to 1980</td>
<td>United States History Bibliography</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Temperance Societies</td>
<td>United States History Civil War Personal Narratives</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Other Article Databases

WorldCat Discovery searches MOST of the library databases. Those listed here are either NOT available via WorldCat Discovery or contain content that must be found or are better found directly in the relevant database. Each database below will include a note indicating not found (NF) or better found (BF).

If you cannot access the full text of an article in these databases, place an Interlibrary Loan/Document Delivery request.

U.S. History in Context  (BF)
Information on people, events and topics in U.S. history. Includes articles from reference works, academic journals and magazines, primary source documents, images, video and audio.
Great Websites!

American History and American Studies Research Guide [https://guides.library.yale.edu/sub/hist-us]
Yale Library’s index of Web sites on American Studies and History; also lists relevant paper sources in Yale's library.

The WWW Virtual Library: U.S. History [http://vlib.iue.it/history/USA/]
This site provides links (no descriptions) grouped by topics and then listed alphabetically within each topic. Topics include: General History; African-Americans; Archives and Bibliographies; Civil War; Colonial and Revolutionary America; Early National Period; Environmental History; Immigration; American Indian; Intellectual and Cultural History.