Reference & Fact Finding

Encyclopedia of American Social History [REF HN57 .E58]

Covers ethnology, gender study, geography, literature, religion, anthropology and sociology.

Encyclopedia of Social Problems [REF HN28 .E55]

Offers an interdisciplinary perspective into many social issues that are a continuing concern in our lives, whether we confront them on a personal, local, regional, national, or global level. With more than 600 entries, these two volumes cover all of the major theories, approaches, and contemporary issues in social problems and also provide insight into how social conditions get defined as social problems, and the ways different people and organizations view and try to solve them.

Encyclopedia of Sociology [REF HM 17 .E5]

Over 300 entries from Adulthood to World Religions. Entries are cross-referenced and contain extensive bibliographic notes.

Handbook of Social Psychology [REF HM 1011 .H37]

The handbook includes chapters by many leading experts in all areas of social psychology, who take stock of research advances in their respective specialties.

Statistical Abstract of the United States [REF HA 202 .P76]

The standard summary of statistics on the social, political and economic organization of the U.S. Includes government and private statistical data that is primarily national in scope. Includes some regional, state, and metropolitan statistics; also some comparative international statistics. Source notes included for all tables.

Books & Articles

WorldCat Discovery is a single search box on the Library's homepage that searches:

- All library-owned print books, including textbooks and reserves
- Millions of ebooks through eBook Central, Google Books, and the Hathi Trust Digital Library
- Journal articles, conference papers and newspaper articles from most of the Library's databases
 - Some databases are better suited to being searched directly (see the next section)
- And books and articles outside of our library by selecting Libraries Worldwide
 - Request items from other libraries using the "Request Items" button

Simply enter your terms into the single search box on the Library home page, and click Search. Use the resulting options (print book or article; date range; author, etc.) on the left of the results page to refine your search.
