

RESOURCE OF THE MONTH

Interlibrary Loan

1

HOW TO DO AN ILL

What is ILL?

Interlibrary loan (ILL) is a service libraries provide where one library borrows materials from another library.

Where to Request Your ILL

3 ways to request an ILL:

 Email
circulation@nichols.edu

 Click “Request materials from other libraries” near the bottom of our Hub home page.

 Make a request from WorldCat Discovery, by clicking “Request the item from other libraries,” found on the detailed record page of an item.

FOR MORE INFORMATION,
CLICK ON THE LINK BELOW

CONANT LIBRARY

2

Reasons to Use ILL

 You require a book, chapter, or article that is not available from Conant Library in WorldCat Discovery.

 You’ve found an article on Google Scholar or other search engine that requires a fee.

3

Include in Your Request

Books

- Title
- Author
- Publication Date

Articles

- Article Title
- Author
- Journal Title
- Volume and Issue Numbers
- Publication Date

4

REQUEST AN ILL TODAY!