

Student Code of Conduct

Policies and Procedures

2025-2026

Nichols College

Being a Bison and a part of the Nichols College Community is a privilege. This privilege comes with the responsibility to act in accordance with all Community Standards. This Student Code of Conduct provides information on Community Standards, behavioral expectations, and the process utilized by the Office of Community Standards to address violations. The Student Code of Conduct is subject to change at the discretion of Nichols College. All Nichols College students are expected to familiarize, understand, and abide by the standards outlined in this Code.

Any updates to policies, procedures, standards, provided in this Student Code of Conduct will be communicated to the College Community via official Nichols College email addresses and posted on the Community Standards hub page at <https://hub.nichols.edu/departments/community-standards>.

Office of Community Standards

Nichols College

The Office of Community Standards supports the College's mission by providing a consistent, fair, and educational process that promotes student learning, development, personal responsibility, integrity, and accountability. We are committed to an educational and developmental process that balances the interests of individual students and the College Community.

To support its mission, The Office of Community Standards

- Develops, provides, interprets, and enforces College policies and expectations for student behavior
- Provides a consistent, educational, developmental, and student-centered approach for resolving policy violations, while promoting positive decision making

Preamble

Nichols College seeks to promote the pursuit of activities that contribute to the intellectual, ethical and physical development of the individual student as well as ensuring the safety of persons engaging in those pursuits. In accordance with its responsibilities as an institution of higher education and upon the approval and acceptance by the President of the College, Nichols College establishes policies of student conduct and regulations for the use of its facilities. Therefore, it is expected that students will conduct their affairs with proper regard for the rights of others and of the College. All members of the College community share a responsibility for maintaining an environment where actions are guided by mutual respect, integrity and reason. Nichols College students are both citizens and members of the academic community.

In seeking to encourage and support responsible behavior, Nichols College places reliance upon self-discipline, counseling, and advisement. In certain circumstances where these preferred means fail, Nichols College must rely upon the rules and procedures described in this Code. In the enforcement of this code, Nichols College functions in an administrative manner and does not follow the traditional common law adversarial method of a court of law.

NOTICE: The reader should take notice that while every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of the information provided herein, Nichols College reserves the right to make changes at any time without prior notice. The College provides the information herein solely for the convenience of the reader, and, to the extent permissible by law, expressly disclaims any liability which may otherwise be incurred.

Nichols College students are responsible for knowing the information, policies and procedures outlined in this document. The College reserves the right to make changes to this code as necessary and once those changes are posted online, they are in effect. Students are encouraged to check the Nichols Portal for the updated versions of all policies and procedures. The Student Code of Conduct is not an exhaustive list of the College's policies and procedures, nor an exhaustive overview of applicable local, state, and/or federal laws.

Nichols College Mission Statement

Within a supportive community, Nichols College transforms today's students into tomorrow's leaders through dynamic, career-focused business and professional education.

To support its mission, Nichols College

- Offers an experiential business curriculum with a strong liberal arts foundation, as well as diverse co- curricular opportunities.
- Integrates into the student experience programs and activities that cultivate and enhance professional skills and readiness.

Develops the communication and critical thinking abilities, the ethical and cultural perspectives, and the necessary teamwork skills that are required of leaders in a global economy.

Institutional Core Values

Leadership: Nichols distinctively integrates, empowers, and influences all students, faculty, and staff, with the capacity to learn, lead, and succeed.

Integrity: Nichols is ethically driven and community minded while fostering trust, civility, and respect.

Initiative: Nichols empowers students, faculty, and staff to take action and actively seek opportunities to better themselves and their community.

Accountability: Nichols creates a foundation of social responsibility to foster individuals who recognize how their actions affect others and the surrounding community.

Excellence: The unique Nichols experience takes place in a dynamic environment in which personal and community excellence is developed and enhanced.

Collaboration: Nichols promotes an environment of teamwork and idea sharing, with the belief that community members who work together produce the best results.

Diversity: Nichols respects and values individual differences and is committed to an inclusive and welcoming environment where all can succeed and thrive.

Official College Communication

Email is the official communication of Nichols College. It is the policy of the College that official communication occurs via the Nichols College email system. Students are responsible for monitoring their Nichols College email regularly as important information is disseminated by that means.

Terminology and Definitions

Business Days/hours: to mean Monday through Friday 8:30am-4:30pm

The College: is to reference Nichols College

Conduct Administrators are given the authority to investigate incidents, assess potential violations, determine finding/outcomes, and impose sanctions.

Designee: an individual that is given full authority, rights, and responsibilities by Nichols College

Finding: The outcome/decision of the Conduct Process resulting in a student either being responsible or not responsible for a violation of the Student Code of Conduct

The Institution: to mean Nichols College

Jurisdiction: The right, authority, or extent to administer the Student Code of Conduct and Student Conduct Process in response to student behavior

Policy: the written regulations, standards, and student conduct expectations

Preponderance of evidence: the standard of proof that is utilized to determine responsibility for violations of the Student Code of Conduct. The superiority in weight of information that is more convincing. In other words, what is more likely than not to be correct.

Reporting Party: an individual or group, including Nichols College who report an incident or act that allegedly violates a policy, procedure, or code of conduct¹ see Complainant footnote

Respondent: a student or student organization allegedly in violation of a policy, procedure, or code of conduct

Sanctions: penalties imposed by a Conduct Officer in response to violation(s) of the Student Code of Conduct meant to direct and address appropriate behavior and Community Standards

Student: any person(s) notified of acceptance, admitted, or enrolled in any course or program offered by the College

Student Organization: an association or group of persons that have complied with formal requirements and are recognized by Nichols College

Applicability of the Code

Jurisdiction

Nichols College extends conduct jurisdiction to all behavior by any person(s) admitted or enrolled in any course or program offered by the College. Additionally, the Student Code of Conduct applies to individuals who have been notified of acceptance to Nichols College. It extends to any recognized student organization, which is responsible for compliance with College policy, rules and regulations. The Student Code of Conduct is established to promote student conduct that does not adversely affect the educational mission of the College.

The Student Code of Conduct may be applied in cases of conduct:

- Occurring on campus or properties leased by the College
- Involving College related personal property
- Occurring during participation or attendance of any College-related activity
- Occurring online, via email or another electronic medium. Students should be aware that online postings such as blogs, web postings, chats and social networking sites are in the public sphere and are not private. While the College does not regularly search for this information, it may take action as necessary when such information is brought to the attention of a College official.
- In which the College has a clear and distinct interest as an academic institution regardless of where the conduct occurs, and which threatens (A) any educational process or legitimate function of the College or (B) the health and safety of any member of the academic community

Conduct Authority

The Dean of Students or designee shall determine the conduct and appellate process and determine which Conduct Administrator shall be authorized to hear each case.

The Dean of Students shall develop policies for administering the conduct system and procedural

¹ In certain circumstances the term Complainant may also be used in place of the term Reporting Party rules for facilitating hearings that are consistent with the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct.

Decisions made by the Conduct Administrator shall be final, pending the normal appeal process. The Dean of Students may be designated as arbitrator of disputes within the student community in cases that do not involve a violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

The Dean of Students or designee has the discretion and authority to modify the Student Code of Conduct policies and procedures at any time or as required by law. Once changes are posted, they are considered active and in effect.

Administrative Action

Nichols College tasks members of the Public Safety and Residential Life staffs with maintaining environments conducive to living and learning. To this end, staff members may take immediate action in response to a given situation. The instructions of a staff member acting in the fulfillment of their duties are to be followed. Failure to follow these instructions is a serious breach of the Nichols College Student Code of Conduct and will result in a referral to the Office of Community Standards.

Administrative Search: The College reserves the right to have College Officials enter and/or search rooms, buildings, suites, apartments, halls, or other areas where there is reasonable suspicion of policy violations, illegal activity, and/or unsafe situations. College Officials have the authority to confiscate any unauthorized items. Confiscated items, in many cases, will not be returned regardless of ownership. In addition, an Administrative Search Directive may be ordered by the Dean of Students or designee.

Routine Entry or Inspection: College Officials reserve the right to enter all campus premises on a regular basis in order to address and ensure the health and safety of individuals. The Office of Community Standards reserves the right to assign violations of the Student Code of Conduct to individuals, regardless of the fact that the violation is observed during a routine entry or inspection.

Violations of the Law

Alleged violations of federal, state and local laws may be investigated and addressed under the Student Code of Conduct. The College reserves the right to initiate conduct investigations regardless of the possibility of a criminal case. The Office of Community Standards may, at its discretion, delay conduct investigations in cases where a criminal case is pending.

Nichols College reserves the right to exercise its authority of interim suspension upon notification that a student is facing criminal investigation and/or complaint. Interim suspensions are imposed until a hearing can be held. The suspended student may request a meeting with the Dean of Students to show cause why the interim suspension should be lifted. This meeting may resolve the allegation or may be held to determine if the interim suspension should be continued. The interim suspension may be continued if a danger to the community is posed or perceived. The College may be delayed or prevented from conducting its own investigation and resolving the allegation by the pendency of the criminal process. In such cases, the College will only delay its hearing until such time as it can conduct an internal investigation or obtain sufficient information independently or from law enforcement upon which to proceed.

Student Rights Within the Code of Conduct

In exercising these rights, students are expected to maintain mature attitudes and must bear the responsibility to act in accordance with local, state, and federal laws, as well as those of the College. No right specified here is meant to be construed as enabling students to infringe upon the individual rights of another member of the community.

- The right be informed of the Community Standards and expectations established through the Student Code of Conduct and College policies.
- The right to be presumed not responsible until determined to be in violation of the Student Code of Conduct.

Note: Certain circumstances might require the College to impose sanctions or restrictions pending a hearing or outcome of the Student Conduct Process.

- The right to be notified of a Referral to the Office of Community Standards and to be notified of any potential violations.
- The right to accept outcomes for Informal Resolutions or to request a Conduct Meeting.
- The right to be notified of allegations at least three (3) business days in advance of a formal hearing (Conduct Meeting and Conduct Hearing Board) unless waived by the student or revoked by the College for the sake of expediency in serious matters involving the safety or well-being of the College community. In certain circumstances additional infractions may be revealed as the Student Conduct Process progresses. The College reserves the right to assess new violations regardless of violations noted in the original notification.
- The right to be heard at a Conduct Hearing Board unless the right is waived by a student during a Conduct Meeting (depending upon the severity of the violations and the discretion of the appropriate College officials, particularly the Dean of Students).
- The right to accept or reject responsibility for alleged violations of the Student Code of Conduct.
- The right to request an appeal for outcomes of Conduct Meetings and Conduct Hearing Boards. Only sanctions may be appealed for Informal Resolutions, if not gone to a Conduct Meeting.
- The right to be notified of your outcomes of the Student Conduct Process.
- The right to benefit from an equitable process free from discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, age, marital status, familial status, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, genetic information, disability, or military status.

Reporting an Incident

The following is a list of ways to report an incident:

1. Report an Incident in Person

- Visit the Student Life Suite located on the third floor in the Fels Student Center
- Visit Public Safety located on the lower level of the Auditorium Building. Entrance is around the left side of the building. Public Safety is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week for students to report incidents. Students can call 508-213-2298 or stop by the Public Safety Department.
- Report an incident to Resident Assistants or Area Coordinators
- Visit any Nichols College Employee to report. All employees are considered mandated reporters.

2. Refer an incident to the Office of Community Standards Electronically

- By visiting <https://hub.nichols.edu/departments/community-standards> and clicking on the boxes on the right hand side
- Email the Office of Community Standards at Community.Standards@nichols.edu

*Note: The Office of Community Standards email is only checked during normal business hours 8:30am-4:30pm. Emergency information and/or incidents should not be emailed.

3. Report an Incident of Sexual Misconduct, Title IX, or Discrimination Electronically

- By visiting <https://hub.nichols.edu/departments/campus-life/dean-of-students/title-ix-and-sexual-misconduct-prevention-and-response/>
- Copy and paste https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?NicholsCollege&layout_id=9 into your browser

All incidents are referred to the Office of Community Standards² for review and a determination will be made if a student's actions constitute any potential violations of the Student Code of Conduct. Though anonymous complaints/reports are permitted, doing so may limit the Office of Community Standards' ability to investigate and respond to a complaint. Those who are aware of misconduct are encouraged to report it as quickly as possible to the Office of Community Standards. There is no time limit on reporting a violation of the Student Code of Conduct; however, the longer an individual wait to report an incident, the harder it becomes for College Officials to obtain information and make determinations regarding any alleged violations.

² Except for instances of Sexual Misconduct, Title IX, or Discrimination that are referred directly to the Title IX Coordinator

Student Code of Conduct Violations

Nichols College considers the behavior described in the following sub-sections as inappropriate for the College Community and in opposition to the institutional mission and core values set forth in this document. Violations include those activities which directly and significantly interfere with Nichols College's: (1) primary educational responsibility of ensuring the opportunity of all members of the community to attain their educational objectives; or (2) its subsidiary responsibilities protecting the health and safety of persons in the campus community, maintaining and protecting property, providing living accommodations and other services. Any student found to have committed or to have attempted to commit the following misconduct is subject to the sanctions outlined in the Conduct Sanctions section of this code.

a. Breaking and Entering

b. Trespassing or unauthorized presence/entry on campus or related

- properties, including residence halls
- c. Assisting an individual with gaining unauthorized access to the campus, grounds, and/or facilities

21. Violations of federal, state, and local laws

Alleged violations of federal, state and local laws may be investigated and addressed under the Student Code of Conduct. The College reserves the right to initiate conduct investigations regardless of the possibility of a criminal case. The Office of Community Standards may, at its discretion, delay conduct investigations in cases where a criminal case is pending.

Nichols College reserves the right to exercise its authority of interim suspension upon notification that a student is facing criminal investigation and/or complaint. Interim suspensions are imposed until a hearing can be held. The suspended student may request a meeting with the Dean of Students to show cause why the interim suspension should be lifted. This meeting may resolve the allegation or may be held to determine if the interim suspension should be continued. The interim suspension may be continued if a danger to the community is posed and the College may be delayed or prevented from conducting its own investigation and resolving the allegation by the pendency of the criminal process. In such cases, the College will only delay its hearing until such time as it can conduct an internal investigation or obtain sufficient information independently or from law enforcement upon which to proceed.

22. Weapons and Firearms

Weapons prohibited on campus include but are not limited to firearms, ammunition, knives over 8 inches in length, BB, air-soft or pellet guns, bows, arrows, slingshots, paintball guns, machetes, pepper spray (mace), nun chucks, throwing stars, or taser/stun guns of any voltage. - p. Assault with a weapon
- q. Possession and/or use of a non-firearm weapon
- r. Use of an object as a weapon

23. Title IX

For policies and procedures, refer to the Nichols College Title IX Policy

- s. Sexual Harassment means conduct on the basis of sex that satisfies one or more of the following:
 - i. An employee of the College conditioning the provision of an aid, benefit, or service of the College on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct (also called "Quid Pro Quo Sexual Harassment"); or
 - ii. Unwelcome sexual conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe or pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies an individual equal access to the College's education program or activity (also called

- “Hostile Environment Sexual Harassment”); or
- iii. Sexual Assault, Dating Violence, Domestic Violence or Stalking as defined below.
 - t. Sexual Assault: Any sexual act directed against another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent. Sexual assault can occur between individuals of the same or different sexes and/or genders. This includes the following:
 - i. Rape: Penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, or by a sex-related object. This definition also includes instances in which the victim is incapable of giving consent because of temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity (including due to the influence of drugs or alcohol) or because of age. Physical resistance is not required on the part of the victim to demonstrate lack of consent;
 - ii. Criminal Sexual Contact: The intentional touching of the clothed or unclothed body parts without consent of the victim for the purpose of sexual degradation, sexual gratification, or sexual humiliation or the forced touching by the victim of the actor’s clothed or unclothed body parts, without consent of the victim for the purpose of sexual degradation, sexual gratification, or sexual humiliation;
 - iii. Incest: Sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law; or
 - iv. Statutory Rape: Sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent.
 - u. Domestic Violence: A felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed: (a) by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim; (b) by an individual with whom the victim shares a child in common; (c) by an individual who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner; (d) by an individual similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the felony or misdemeanor crime of violence occurred; (e) by any other individual against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that individual’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the felony or misdemeanor crime of violence occurred. For purposes of this policy, an intimate partner is defined as an individual with whom one has or had a short- or long-term relationship that provides romantic and/or physical intimacy or emotional dependence. Intimate relationships can occur between individuals of the same gender or different genders and may include (but are not limited to) marriages, civil unions, dating relationships, “hook-up” relationships, relationships in which partners are characterized as “girlfriends” or “boyfriends,” and relationships between individuals with a child in common.
 - v. Dating Violence: Violence committed by an individual who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on the reporting individual’s statement and with consideration of the length of the relationship, the type of relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the individuals involved in the relationship. This includes, but is not limited to, sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse. Dating violence does not include acts covered under the definition of domestic violence.

- w. Stalking: Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific individual that would cause a reasonable person to: (a) fear for the individual's safety or the safety of others; or (b) suffer substantial emotional distress. For the purposes of the Stalking definition: Course of conduct means two or more acts, including acts in which the stalker directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about an individual, or interferes with an individual's property. Reasonable person means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim. Substantial emotional distress means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

Student Conduct Process and Procedures⁴

Students are referred to the Office of Community Standards for alleged Student Code of Conduct Violations and College Policy Violations. The Office of Community Standards will determine if a student's actions constitute any potential violations of the Student Code of Conduct. Note that preliminary investigations may be needed to determine violations of the code prior to notification of violations and commencing of the Student Conduct Process. Depending on the severity of the incident and accompanying violations, the College reserves the right to utilize specific conduct case resolutions. If a respondent fails or refuses to participate in the Student Conduct Process, the process will be conducted, and the decision made without the benefit of the respondent's input. In this instance, the respondent forfeits the right to appeal. Note: The Student Code of Conduct Process is not a part of the legal system, is not a court of law, and is not governed by the same procedures found in criminal or civil proceedings.

A student will be officially notified via email of a referral to the Office of Community Standards and if any violations of the Student Code of Conduct have been assessed. A Conduct Administrator will notify the respondent of any Conduct Process outcomes, decisions, and any accompanying sanctions in writing/via email.

Types of Resolutions

A. No Violation Assessment

Upon preliminary investigations, the Director of Residence Life and Community Standards may determine that the incident referral does not meet the full criteria of a violation of the Student Code of Conduct. In this circumstance, the student will be officially notified of the violations that could have been assessed and is provided with the opportunity for policy review.

⁴ Referrals which allege violations of the Nichols College Sexual Misconduct Policy or the Nichols College Title IX Sexual Harassment will proceed under the procedures outlined in those separate policies.

B. Informal Resolution

1. Students are notified that a referral has been received by the Office of Community Standards. Based upon the information contained in the incident referral, the Director of Residence Life and Community Standards includes the violations that are assessed to the student. Sanctions are rendered that are in line with the factors of Student Conduct History, previously established baselines, and details from the incident itself
2. Students are provided the opportunity to:
 - a. Accept the violations, outcomes, and sanctions⁵
 - b. Request/Appeal a Conduct Meeting

C. Conduct Meeting

A Conduct Meeting offers the opportunity to discuss the incident and responsibility for the violations and the sanctions. Conduct Hearing will occur after three (3) business days from notification to the student, unless otherwise requested by the student in writing. When a Conduct Meeting is initiated by a Conduct Administrator, the student is notified of a referral to the Office of Community Standards and potential violations.

The respondent will be asked about any involvement in the incident and

- i. Accept responsibility for the violations
 - a) Sanctions will be rendered by the Conduct Administrator. Note, the respondent forfeits the right to appeal the finding of the Conduct Meeting but can request an appeal for sanctions.
- ii. Reject responsibility for the violations
 - a) The respondent is given an opportunity to provide information regarding the incident and violations.
 - b) A Conduct Administrator will then render a resolution if further information is not needed to render a decision.
 - c) A Conduct Administrator can reschedule a follow-up meeting to obtain further information.

In the event that a respondent fails to appear for a Conduct Meeting, the Conduct Administrator may hold the Conduct Meeting without the student's input or, at their discretion, may schedule a second Conduct Meeting and notify the respondent via email.

College Hearing Board

The College reserves the right to invoke the use of a Conduct Board for major violations of the Student Code of Conduct. A Conduct Board consists of up to five College Administrators including Faculty and Staff. Similar to a Conduct Hearing, the respondent will have the opportunity to provide information/witnesses pertaining to the incident and the alleged violations. A respondent has the right to bring in an Advisor to the Conduct Board Hearing. However, the College reserves the right to set forth policies on Advisor involvement. The Conduct Board will consider the information and use a preponderance of evidence to determine the finding. Sanctions will be assigned if there is a Responsible Finding. The respondent will be notified. The student has the right to request and appeal of the findings and the sanctions outcomes for a Conduct Hearing. See the Appeal Process on page 25 of the Student Code of Conduct.

D. Hearing in Absentia⁵

If a student fails to appear for a Conduct Meeting, Conduct Hearing, and/or Conduct Board, the Conduct Administrator will go forward with a review of the incident and determine an outcome and possible sanctions in the student's absence. In this case, the student forfeits the right to appeal. Any sanctions rendered are in affect at the time of the case closure.

Advisors in the Process

A student may choose to have an Advisor present for Conduct Hearings or Conduct Boards. An Advisor can be a parent/guardian, a member of the College Community, or other individual as long as the individual is not legal counsel. Note: Title IX Investigations do not limit the choice of Advisor. The student must speak on their own behalf. The Advisor is not permitted to participate in the hearing; rather they will lend personal support to the student.

Advisors are:

- Not permitted to address the Conduct Administrators while the hearing is in session.
- Not permitted to speak with or question the opposing party or any other involved individuals.

Student Conduct Authorities

A. Dean of Students

The Dean of Students, in regard to Student Conduct has the following roles and authorities including but not limited to:

1. Determining the conduct and appeal process for certain cases, including assignment of Conduct Administrators to cases.
2. Developing policies and procedural rules for cases of student conduct that are consistent with the provisions of the Student Code of Conduct.
3. As an arbitrator of disputes within the student community in cases that do not involve violations of the Student Code of Conduct.
4. In the absence of a formal specified procedure or policy, the directives of the Dean of Students will have the full force of procedure/policy.
5. The Dean reserves the right to designate individuals as necessary to aid in the Student Code of Conduct process.

B. Director of Residence Life and Community Standards

The Director of Residence Life and Community Standards serves as a designee of the Dean of Students and is responsible for the implementation and coordination of the Student Code of Conduct and Process. Authority is extended to the Appeals Process.

⁵Cases which alleged violations of the Nichols College Sexual Misconduct Policy or the Nichols College Title IX Sexual Harassment may not be heard in absentia, but will proceed under the procedures outlined in those separate policies.

C. Conduct Administrator

Conduct Administrators serve as designees of the Dean of Students and/or the Director of Residence Life and Community Standards and are responsible for generating findings and sanctions in student conduct cases. Decisions made by a Conduct Administrators are final.⁶

D. Conduct Board

The Conduct Board serves as a designee of the Dean of Students and consists of College Administrators. Board decisions are final.⁷

E. Appeal Officer

An Appeal Officer serves as a designee of the Dean of Students and is responsible for deciding appealed Student Conduct cases. Decisions made by the Appeal Officer are final with no chance to appeal further.

Student Withdrawal during the Student Code of Conduct Process

A student who withdraws from Nichols College after a complaint has been referred to the Office of Community Standards but before the Student Code of Conduct Process can be completed may or may not be allowed to re-enroll at another point in time. The determination will be made depending on the outcome of the Student Conduct Process, which will continue in an effort to find resolution regardless of a student's enrollment status.

Process of Appealing a Conduct Decision

Students may request an appeal of the outcome of conduct decisions by filing a Request to Appeal Form with The Office of Community Standards within forty-eight (48) business hours of being notified of the results of the Conduct Meeting, Conduct Hearing or Conduct Board.⁸ A Request to Appeal Form can be found at:

https://publicdocs.maxient.com/reportingform.php?NicholsCollege&layout_id=10

Students may request an appeal for the following reasons ONLY:

1. The Student Conduct Process was not followed.
2. New and significant information has become available which could alter the original outcome.
3. The sanctions given were inconsistent with the Student Code of Conduct policies.

Note: A student who fails to appear for a scheduled Conduct Meeting, Conduct Hearing, or Conduct Board forfeits all right to an appeal.

⁶ If an Appeal Process is not initiated

⁷ If an Appeal Process is not initiated

⁸ Cases that are heard under the Nichols College Sexual Misconduct Policy or the Nichols College Title IX Sexual Harassment follow a different appeal process which is outlined in those separate policies.

Request for Appeal Review

The Office of Community Standards will review the Request to Appeal and will determine if the request is valid under the provisions listed above. In the event that a Request to Appeal is not granted by the Office of Community Standards, the original decision and sanctions are upheld and go into effect once the respondent is notified. The respondent will be notified via email the outcome of the request within forty-eight (48) business hours of the request being received.

Request for Appeal Granted

If the Request to Appeal is granted, a student will have three (3) business days to submit a Statement of Appeal to the Office of Community Standards. The Statement of Appeal must provide a rationale for the appeal that specifically addresses the reason for appeal. Upon receiving the statement, the Office of Community Standards will designate an Appeal Officer based on the following:

Original Conduct Administrator	Appeal Officer
Area Coordinator/Grad Assistant	Director of Community Standards
Other College Official	Director of Community Standards
Director of Community Standards	Dean of Students or Designee

The Appeal Officer will review the Statement of Appeal, review other pertinent information, and take one of the following actions:

- Uphold the decision and sanction (The appeal is dismissed and the original outcomes stand)
- Reverse the decision and reduce the sanction
- Uphold the decision and increase the sanction
- Refer the matter to another Conduct Administrator if a procedural error occurred
- Refer the matter back to the original Conduct Administrator on the grounds of new relevant information

The Appeal Officer is not charged with re-evaluating the truthfulness or relevance of the facts presented in the original hearing, but rather will evaluate the process, sanctions, and decisions. The purpose of an appeal process is to foster checks and balances in the conduct process. The decision of the Appeal Officer is final.

Student Status Pending Appeal

Except for sanctions that change student status (probation, suspension, expulsion etc.), any other sanctions assigned are deferred pending an outcome of appeal. The Dean of Students reserves the right to allow or restrict student participation in classes, athletics, other activities, or specific locations during the appeals process. Nichols College reserves the right to temporarily remove a student from housing and/or the College pending conduct outcomes where the presence of the respondent may constitute a real and/or potential danger or disruption to the College Community.

Medical Amnesty

In cases of alcohol and/or drug emergency, the primary concern is the health, safety, and well-being of the individual(s) involved. Nichols College supports an environment that encourages students to help others who need assistance. Students are expected to call for medical assistance (508-213-2298) for themselves or for another student who they observe to be, or feel is dangerously intoxicated/under the influence of drugs. This policy encourages students to take responsible action when another student is at risk due to the consumption of alcohol and/or drugs.

Note: If a student calls on behalf of another student the reporting student is required to remain with the student experiencing the emergency until medical assistance arrives.

Reporting students involved and the student requiring medical attention for an alcohol or drug related emergency will not be referred to the Office of Community Standards and will not face Student Code of Conduct violations for possession and/ or consumption of drug/alcohol. This policy only applies to students who directly seek emergency medical assistance.

The student requiring medical assistance will have a confidential check-in meeting with the Dean of Students or designee. As long as the student(s) comply with all directives, there will be no violations assessed related to the violation of possession or consumption of alcohol/drugs.

The Medical Amnesty Policy is not intended to shield or protect those students who repeatedly violate the Student Code of Conduct. When repeated instances of drug or alcohol emergencies occur, the College reserves the right to assess violations to a student(s) on a case-by-case basis regardless of the manner in which the incident was reported. Medical Amnesty applies only to alcohol or drug-related emergencies and does not apply to other Student Code of Conduct Violations such as but not limited to assault, property damage, or distribution of substances. If other violations occur, then a student(s)/organization could be held accountable for the Student Code of Conduct violations. The use or abuse of alcohol or drugs is not considered a mitigating circumstance for any other violations of the Student Code of Conduct.

Regardless of the dispatching party or origin of the call, the student is solely responsible for any fees associated with transportation, hospitalization, and treatment for any and all medical responses. Massachusetts General Law Chapter 15A, section 18 requires all students enrolled in 9 or more credits be covered by health and accident insurance. The College is not responsible for any health care expenses incurred.

Student Conduct Sanctions

One or more of the following sanctions may be imposed upon a student for any single violation of the Student Code of Conduct. In the event that a student is found responsible for multiple violations resulting from a single action, a combination of sanctions may be imposed. Repeated violations will result in increased sanctions. Sanctions will be proportionate to the severity of the violation and based upon the cumulative conduct history of the student. All sanctions are effective immediately upon notification or upon the completion of the appeal process. All students are expected to comply with conduct sanctions. Failure to follow the directive of an imposed sanction by a specified timeframe or deadline may result in additional or increased sanctions. A student will be charged a $50.00 fine for failure to complete a sanction by the specified deadline and a new deadline will be assigned.

Note: Some sanctions may affect College opportunities, including but not limited to Study Abroad, holding a class office role, or employment.

Interim Action

In certain circumstances, prior to initiation of the conduct process the Dean of Students or designee may take temporary action to protect the health, safety, or well-being of the Campus Community.

Interim Suspension: In certain circumstances, the Dean of Students or designee may suspend a student for a temporary period pending student conduct proceedings prior to a Conduct Hearing, Conduct Board, or Investigation. This sanction is enforced with a No Trespass¹⁰ sanction.

When an interim suspension is imposed:

- a. The student is required to leave campus immediately and is not allowed on campus until their Conduct Hearing.
- b. The student will not be permitted to participate in any Nichols College events including social events on/off campus, Athletic games and practices during the suspension time-frame.
- c. Resident students are denied access to all Residence Halls for the duration of the Interim Suspension.

Other Interim Actions include, but are not limited to Housing Relocation, Removal from Housing, Suspension of Privileges, or other listed sanctions. All Interim Actions are in place until officially lifted by the Dean of Students or their designee.

Student Status Sanctions

Expulsion from Nichols College: The permanent separation of the student from Nichols College. The student is permanently barred from enrolling as a student, completing class credits, being present on college property or at college-sponsored events. This sanction is enforced with a No Trespass sanction.

Deferred Expulsion from Nichols College: Students given this sanction must understand that they are in jeopardy of being expelled from the College. Should additional code of conduct violations occur, the Expulsion from Nichols College sanction will immediately take effect.

Suspension from Nichols College: Separation from Nichols College for a specified period of time, after which the student is eligible to return. The student is required to vacate the campus within hours of notification of the action. During the suspension period the student is banned from enrolling as a student, completing class credits, being present on college property or at college-sponsored events. This sanction is enforced with a No Trespass sanction⁹.

⁹ See "No Trespass" in this Sanctions section for definition and parameters

Deferred Suspension from Nichols College: Students given this sanction must understand that they are in jeopardy of being suspended from the College. Should additional code of conduct violations occur, the Suspension from Nichols College sanction will immediately take effect.

Probation: A specified time period in which a student is put on official notice that further violations of the Student Code of Conduct may result in additional restrictions and/or increased student status sanctions.

Extension of Probation: An Extension of Probation is given when a student is found responsible for minor Code of Conduct violations while on a Probation status. The previous Probation end date is extended a minimum of 8 academic weeks.

Written Warning: An official written notification confirming that the student has violated the Student Code of Conduct and that future violations may result in more severe sanctions.

Restrictions

Guest Restriction: Resident students are prohibited from hosting any guest during the sanction time period.

Loss of Privileges: Restriction of a student's privileges including, but not limited to loss or restriction of computer use, facilities and/or participation of College-sponsored events.

Loss of Parking Privileges: When this sanction is given, the issuance of a student's parking decal is revoked for a determined length of time. That student can no longer park any vehicle on campus.

Deferred Loss of Parking Privileges: Students given this sanction must understand that the privilege to park on campus is in jeopardy of being revoked for continued parking infractions and/or violations of the Motor Vehicle Policy.

Weekend Suspension: Under certain circumstances, the privilege to be on campus during weekends will be removed. Students will be informed of how many weekends they will need to leave campus. The student must be off campus by Friday at 9:00pm until Sunday at 5:00pm. Under this sanction a student is not authorized to attend any Nichols College events including social events on/off campus, Athletic games and practices during the suspension time-frame.

Social Restriction: The privilege of attending any Nichols College event is removed. This limits a student's access to the campus for academic reasons only. These reasons include, but are not limited to classes, library, faculty or advisor meetings, or class credit programs. Presence in other areas of campus is not permitted.

Deferred Social Restriction: Students given this sanction must understand that the privilege to attend Nichols events is in jeopardy of being revoked should there be continued Code of Conduct violations.

No Contact Directive: An order to cease and desist any intentional contact. This directive is issued when there is reason to believe that an order would be in the best interest of all parties and the community for maintaining peace and safety. Intentional contact includes but is not limited to personal contact, telephone, email, texting, social media, or other electronic means. This directive prohibits third-party communication on behalf of the student via those methods.

Note: No Contact Directives are issued to all parties involved and may be imposed prior to initiation of the Conduct Process or assessed as a sanction upon the outcome of the process. A student who violates a No Contact Directive will be referred to the Office of Community Standards and will face additional action for violating the Student Code of Conduct.

Issuance of No Contact Directives:

- Students are encouraged to seek assistance from the Residence Life Staff, Public Safety, and/or the Office of Community Standards if they are experiencing an emergency situation involving another student. A No Contact Directive can be issued if deemed necessary by a College Administrator on a temporary basis.
- The individuals receiving the No Contact Directive will be required to meet with the Office of Community Standards or designee to investigate the situation and determine the continuation of the directive.

Requests for Lifting No Contact Directives:

- Only the Director of Community Standards or designee has the authority to lift a No Contact Directive. Individuals who wish to request that their No Contact Directive is lifted need to email the Office of Community Standards at Community.Standards@nichols.edu. The Director of Community Standards or designee will investigate the request and make the determination. All No Contact Directives remain in effect until directly specified as being lifted.

No Trespass Orders: A restriction preventing an individual from entering or remaining upon College-owned property. Violations will be subject to immediate arrest and criminal prosecution.

No Trespass All Campus: A full restriction from any and all properties of Nichols College. This includes the areas near the properties and facilities including, but not limited to lawns, walkways, athletic fields, and parking lots. This sanction is in place until officially lifted by the Director of Community Standards or designee.

No Trespass from Residence Halls: Student restriction from entering into any residence hall, including areas near any Nichols Residence Halls. This sanction is in place until officially lifted by the Director of Community Standards or designee.

No Trespassed from Specific Campus Location: In certain circumstances, a student may be restricted from entering a Campus building, certain location or property/grounds during a designated time period.

Housing

Housing Lottery Points: In cases where a student is found to be responsible for malicious damage, destruction, or vandalism within the residence halls an additional 1000 points will be added to a student's personal lottery number for the upcoming Housing Lottery Process. This sanction can be assigned in conjunction with a Removal from Housing Held in Abeyance as a sanction.

Deferred Housing Relocation: A student is put on official notice that further violations of the Code of Conduct could result in a Housing Relocation where a student is administratively moved to another Housing Assignment.

Housing Relocation: Under certain circumstances, a student will be sanctioned to change their current residence hall room and/or residence hall building. This sanction may be a permanent relocation or a temporary relocation.

Deferred Removal from Housing: Students given this sanction must understand that they are in jeopardy of being removed from housing. Should additional Code of Conduct violations occur, the Removal from Housing sanction will immediately take effect.

Removal from Housing: The separation of the student from the residence halls for a period of time. The privilege of living on campus is removed beginning twenty-four (24) hours after notification. The student is No Trespassed from any residence hall during the Removal from Housing time period.

Permanent Loss of Housing: The ability for a student to enroll as a Residential Student is revoked for the remainder of the student's academic career at Nichols College. This sanction is accompanied by a No Trespass Order from Residence Halls, which is in effect indefinitely.

Educational

Educational: Requiring a student to complete a specific educational requirement directly related to the Student Code of Conduct violation. The purpose of the educational sanction is to foster student learning and personal development.

In-Person Assessment: This sanction requires the student to complete a substance-abuse assessment and follow-through with the recommendations of Counseling Services.

Letter of Apology: Submittal of a letter of apology to a complainant or other appropriate individual(s) and/or groups. Students should understand one's actions and the impact it has on others and the community.

Punitive Sanctions

Fine: A monetary assessment to a student's account that is not connected to damage and/or loss.

Restitution: A student may be required to reimburse the College, appropriate individual(s), and/or student organization for damages associated with a Code of Conduct violation. This is not a fine but, rather, a monetary assessment to a student's account for repayment of labor costs and/or the value of the property destroyed, damaged, consumed, or stolen.

Parent/Guardian Notification

Parental/Guardian Notification: Nichols College reserves the right to notify parents/guardians for significant conduct outcomes. As is permitted under FERPA (Family Education Rights Privacy Act) Nichols College will notify parents/guardians for alcohol and drug conduct outcomes. Students are encouraged to communicate with parents/guardians about the outcomes.

Educational Records

The written outcome of a Conduct Meeting, Conduct Hearing, or Conduct Board is part of the respondent student's education record and shall be subject to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). A student's file shall be retained by the Office of Student Life for a period of seven (7) years from the date of the student's graduation or withdrawal from the institution unless: 1) the case resulted in an expulsion, in which case the file will be kept indefinitely or 2) the case involved a Title IX incident, in which case the file will be retained in accordance with federal, state, or local law.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act

Educational records are generally protected from disclosure under FERPA. However, students should be aware that other colleges or universities may require a student to provide access to a record concerning student conduct pending transfer of the student. Similarly, prospective landlords, employers, etc. may require a student to provide access to their educational records as part of employment applications.

Process for Records Requests

The Office of Community Standards will not release any part of a student's educational record without written consent from the student except to Nichols College Officials and/or offices. Students wishing to obtain educational record components need to submit a Request to Review Education Records Form to the Office of Community Standards.
