

HEDS Sexual Assault Campus Climate Survey 2023-2024 Summary Report Nichols College

Campus Climate

The HEDS Sexual Assault Campus Climate Survey asked undergraduates the extent to which they agreed with the following statements about the climate at their institution:

- Faculty, staff, and administrators respect what students think.
- Faculty, staff, and administrators at my institution are genuinely concerned about students' welfare.
- Faculty, staff, and administrators on this campus treat students fairly.
- Students at my institution are genuinely concerned about the welfare of other students.
- I feel valued in the classroom/learning environment.
- I feel close to people on this campus.
- I feel like I am a part of the institution's community.
- I feel safe on this campus.

In the following graph, we show the percentage of students who selected "Agree" or "Strongly Agree" for all eight statements, comparing the responses of women and men at your institution with those of women and men at all other Master's Colleges and Universities.

Overall, students who experienced higher levels of unwanted sexual contact, who experienced an attempted sexual assault, and who have been sexually assaulted were less likely to agree with the general campus climate questions.

The survey also asked students the extent to which different groups of people contribute to a positive and supportive campus climate at their institution. As before, we show the percentage of students who selected "Agree" or "Strongly Agree" for each group on campus, comparing responses of students at your institution with those of students at all other Master's Colleges and Universities.
